PRISON BREAK

Spies among us. What? That's in the Bible? Would you be surprised to know that it's in both the Old and New Testaments?

Last week in PRISONBREAK we learned how the believers in Galatia began their relationship with God with pure faith in Christ which led them to freedom. . . a life on the outside. But they soon drifted back into a life of rules, a life of religious activity, duty and rituals. They traded one big burden of sin for another one of rules.

This week we learn that there are spies among us. Paul tells us a little about these spies. They are people who have the agenda of spreading a false gospel, and sometimes they show up in the church. They have one goal in mind: to rob you of your freedom in Christ. They want nothing less than to see you imprisoned again.

This weekend we hope you learn to resist their influence and their attempts to imprison you, so you may live free as Christ intended, and avoid the subtle cell.

We're glad you're here today! If this is your first time with us, please know that there is someone waiting to answer your questions at Guest Central in the lobby. You can also learn more about us online at chestnutridgechurch.com.
