THE MOTIONS

I hate dying to myself. In fact, most days, I would rather do just about anything else. And yet, God tells us that in His kingdom, it is those who lose their lives, die to themselves, that will really live.

Usually the rub comes when someone asks me to do something that is inconvenient for me at the time. Just today my daughter asked me to go back upstairs, after I had just come down, to get her shoes in her room. I really didn't want to, to be honest. And I had to fight that battle in my mind between what I wanted to do and what she needed.

Jesus taught that the kingdom of heaven is not like the kingdom of this world, and that there is actually a beautiful wonderful side of death. In John 12:24, "I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds." The good thing about death is that it ultimately produces life.

And when we practice the discipline of serving others, dying to ourselves, we actually get to enjoy a rich and rewarding harvest, a more bountiful life.

This weekend we are talking about how the discipline of service can lead to an abundant and beautiful life. We hope that you will be inspired to take one step down that path.

We're glad you are here this weekend! If you need assistance or have any questions, please feel free to stop by guestCENTRAL in the lobby.
