At Chestnut Ridge we believe in the value of community, and know that people are able to grow spiritually in the context of real relationships with other believers. If you'd like to meet some new people, and maybe find a community group for you, please join us for groupLINK on Sunday, March 14th immediately following the 11 a.m. service. Lunch and childcare will be provided. To sign up, simply fill out the registration form inside this program, and drop it off at the kiosk in the lobby after service. Message

TIM HARING
20/20 VISION

I can and do present a certain persona to the world, but it's not the real me. It would be too easy to go through life, hidden away in my home, and not let anyone past the persona.

On the other hand, my closest friends can see right through any masks or pretenses I put on. My best friend knows me like the back of his hand. He can see right through my pretenses to the fears behind them. He can call me out and ask me the tough questions. He can make me laugh at the world, and myself, when I have a bad day. He provides a backdrop of unconditional acceptance, one where I'm free to say anything, push back, and ultimately, grow. He is the anvil upon which God forms and transforms me. He won't let me go, in a good way. He helps me learn to trust God, to believe Him when my faith wavers. And he reminds me all the time of who I am in Christ, which is no small thing. And I do the same for him. We are mutual benefactors.

God has used my friends to shape me in indescribable ways. My friends are there for me, and I am there for them; loving, supporting, praying, and sharpening. I know my friends would come after me if I were in trouble or went to a really bad place. I know they will always be there for me, a picture of God's unconditional love. I could not make it without my friends.

Today, Tim will unpack the importance of getting in a context where you can be known by others.

Thanks for joining us this weekend!

MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Looking for something to get involved in? Check out DV8 and Wired!

DV8 | sunday [middle school]

DV8 meets on Sunday mornings during both services upstairs. Middle school students gather as a large group for a time of corporate worship, fun activities and a relevant Bible lesson.

DV8 | tuesday [middle school]

DV8 also meets on Tuesday nights for a more relaxed and conversational gathering. There is more fun (of course), then students break into small groups to discuss how to apply the Bible to their everyday lives.

Wired [high school]

Throughout the semester, Wired meets from 7:30-9:00 p.m. in the Hub at CRC for Reunions, a time where all high school students and their small group leaders connect with each other and experience corporate worship and relevant Bible teaching. The next reunion is on Tuesday, March 23rd.

RENEW RECOVERY

Having trouble asking for help with an alcohol or chemical addiction? You are not alone. Other Christians who have been there are willing to help at Renew Recovery Ministry. Weekly meetings are held every Monday night at 7:00 in the Conference Room (across from the main office.)
